FOREWORD

As Coleridge has so aptly stated, "The happiness of life is made up of minute fractions . . . . .". We have set aside on these pages a record of that fraction entitled, "Our Education". We hope this record will become a cherished momento for all who in their search for happy moments turn to the pages of our

1958 ZIDAC

DEDICATION

To Mr. Ross Finnical and James Chaney, janitors, we gratefully dedicate this Zidac, as a slight token of our appreciation for their interest and never failing kindness toward the students of Cadiz High School, and for their sincere friendship toward them.

As time passes, the memories of your high school days gradually fade and die away, and were it not for some lasting record of persons, events, and traditions of these days, many of them would be lost from mind.

To forestall such a regretable fading of memories, this yearbook is published. Through it may the past be refreshed as time goes by and the memories of your Alma Mater be cherished.

"The riders in a race do not stop short when they reach the goal. There is a little finishing canter before coming to a stand still. There is time to hear the kind voice of friends and to say to one's self: "The work is done." But just as one says that, the answer comes: "The race is over, but the work never is done while the power to work remains." The canter that brings you to a stand still need not be only coming to a rest. It cannot be, while you still live. For a live is to function."

CLASS HISTORY

September 6, 1954 was indeed a more memorable day for the class of "58" than our first day of school. Some things were new; the boys and girls who came from the country schools. Some things were old; studies. We took scholarship tests for the first time, but they weren't as bad as we thought they were going to be. This first year in high school was not all work, for we had fun too. There was work however, with the fun we had. We sold stationary, saving every cent for our Junior year, when we would participate in the dream of high school, the Senior Prom. We also showed our talents in our Freshman assembly. All in all, our ninth year in school was one which will always be remembered.

September 5, 1955 rolled around before we knew it, and we returned to Cadiz High School, proud to be Sophomores. The Y-Teens and the Hi-Y held their initiations for the new Sophomore members and things were really in a spin for a day. We sold magazines to get money for our Junior year. Final exams were upon us before we realized it, what with our assembly and the basketball games. This year was a great one for the basketball team, with 16 wins and 1 loss. We were now looking forward to being upper classmen.

September 3, 1956 was the first day of our Junior year at Cadiz High School. This was to be our best year yet. We had the concession stand at the football games to prepare for the Prom. The football team had a very wonderful year, with 8 wins, 1 tie, and no losses. The Junior Class Play, "Rest Assured", was a great success. The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held at the Presbyterian Church and the Cadiz Country Club. They were all our dreams come true, even though we did do all the work. Next year it will be different.

Well, well, here it is September 3, 1957, the first day of our last year in high school. "This is it", that which we have been waiting for. Our 12th year. We made it! We are "SENIORS". ALL 74 of us. The play, "The Automatic Butler", the Prom, the good football team, and all the other things, which we have been looking forward to since our Freshman days, are ours, to keep in our memories forever.

We, the Class of 1958, wish to thank all the teachers through the years, who have given us help and guidance in all we have attempted. To Mr. Campbell, Miss Parkinson, and Mr. Roth, our Senior sponsors, we wish to extend our sincere thanks for helping us through our final year at Cadiz High School.

Cindy Pettay

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Cadiz High School, Harrison County, State of Ohio, U. S. A., in this year of 1958, being of sane minds, good moral character, sound body, good sense and habit, considering the hours we have struggled for learning in this institution, do hereby make and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Our Literature and Government classes, our late hours, popularity with the Faculty, all wise cracks and excess knowledge, we leave to the future Seniors. We bequeath to the Junior Class our most cherished possession, our name, "Seniors."

Jo Anne Slevin is leaving her morning trip around the school that makes the first period class more interesting, to Kelly Snodgrass. Joyce Swann and Barbara Bumgardner leave their ability to always be absent at the same time, to Anita Bobot and Luan Dodd. Wilson McMannis and Bill Rogers will the fragments of their hearts that the Senior girls didn't take, to Mary Beth Henwood and Virginia Smith. Barbara Becker and Nancy Bovenizer leave their height to Peggy Colteryahn and Molly Decker.

Jack Edwards leaves his ability to charm the girls to Jim Wallace. Linda Sedgmer's innocent smile goes to Judy Conrad and Ruth Stinard. Bill Lewis's interest in the class of "60" is given to Bob Karver. To Karen Van Camp and Mary McInnes, Beverly Norris wills her credits, to be divided equally, so that they won't have to worry about graduating. William Abel and Julius Benyuska leave their aptness to fall asleep in classes to Jack Cologie and William Strothers.

To Nancy Rogers, Peggy Lee leaves her distinguished walk!!! Bob Cumler leaves his faithful old "hot rod" to Dave Hawthorne. Doris Decker leaves to Sheryl Moorhead her dislike for food. Bill Brown wills his ability to arrive in the Senior home room at least one minute before the tardy bell rings to Gary Meadows and Melvin Mason. Helen Dickerson leaves her giggles to Edna Rutoski. Larry Newcomer and Richard Roach leave their vocal talent to Allen Geanangel.

Sandra Maxwell leaves her loud and boisterous manner to Marlene Boyce. Kent Holland's secret formula for his irresistable charms goes to Tom Michelli and Willard Thomas. Linda Parrish bequeaths her flirting, but somehow innocent ways, to Dianne Henwood. The cute little dimple on Bob Blake's chin goes to Gary Bumgardner. To Sandra Estep and Sandra Frizzel goes Bonnie Wolfe's and Viola Davis's gift of gab.

Ronnie Selway leaves his ability to be chauffered around for "6" months to Larry Thompson. Cindy Pettay leaves her undisputed title of "Champion Gum Cracker" to Gretchen Corban. George Jenkins bequeaths his love for a certain redhead, not "Rhonda Fleming," to Keith Henderson.

Ernest Householder, Robert Byers, and Ronnie Barnhart will their secret of staying out of trouble to Gordon Willis. Judy Crawford bequeaths to Mary Lou Jenkins her ability to stick her foot in her mouth at least once a day. Bryant Rothermund, Charles Ledger, Benny Schas and Robert Blake will their studious habits to Ronald Bryan and Charles Conrad.

John Cope leaves the little spot he has warmed on the football bench to Bob Francis. Sandra Haught, to her baby sister Nancy, wills her shorthand ability. Jon Mazeroski leaves to John Hesford and Floyd White the job of taking kids home after school. Chuck Leeser's radio fever is left to Jim Halstead. Kay Rider leaves her ability to go steady with a college football player to Carol Selway. Kenny Welsh leaves his ability to get romantic parts in the class plays to Bob Brokaw. Jim Dowdle's natural curly locks are willed to Gary Carson.

Janice Moore's ability to drive a Cadillac to school is left to Kay Edwards. Kenny Sharp leaves his "whopie boots" to Virgil Mills! Eleanor Scypta and Irene Wallace will their attraction for juicy gossip to Marion Mizer and Anne Swingle. Ronnie Smith wills his privilege of leaving school at 2:30 every day to all the "Junior Hookie Players." Diana O'Bradovich wills her "innocent brown eyes" to Rosalee Roach. Bill Thompson will his locker No. ____ to Deanna Hawk. Judy Anderson and Anne Holmes give their bashful ways to Marcia Huntsman and Wanetta Lawlis. Guy Tabacchi wills his sophisticated ways to Jerry Wilson.

Joan Thompson inherits Pat Mackall's shy blushing ways. Phyllis Davis leaves her loving ways to Susan Grove. Loren Johnson wills his ability to see over everyone else in the halls to Tom Jones. To Nancy Hennen, Nancy Ledfors, and Joyce Carrothers, Linda Cunningham and Brenda Brooks leave their ability to talk all the time. Bill Steer's and Woodrow Tramel's senses of humor are willed to Ronnie Wilson. Judy Trushel's Skill of being seen and not heard is given to Molly Campbell. Gary Cunningham and Ronald Blake leave their patent-leather hair to Robert Cornett. Bill Brownfield wills his pretty red athletic jacket to John O'Neil. Tom Malicki leaves to Everett Murral his book of human relations.

Charmaine Bland leaves her curly black hair to Rebecca Wallace, Pat Walker, and Rosalie Sickle. Bob Smith bequeaths his shiny black convertible to any Junior who will promise not to drive over 35. Connie Fulton leaves to Janet Denham and Mildred Myers her quiet ways. John Stevenson and Fred Bryan will their pretty brown eyes to Kenny Swelbar. Carol Terry leaves to her little brother Lawrence her seat in Gov't class. Bruce Keesey's debonair ways with the girls goes to Bruce Torok. Ed Mazeroski wills anything he can get his hands on to any Junior who thinks they can get their hands on it.

Kay Rider and Linda Parrish

PROPHECY

The years of employment for each of us are arriving. We hope that every boy and girl can earn themselves a buck (with courage, hope, and endeavor) and that they all have their share of luck.

Just what the future holds, we're sure you do not know; so just hold on, and read along; your future we will show.

Taxi! Since we had so many places to go, we got a taxi and no one but Ernie Householder buzzed by in his "Householder Special", and took us to the airport. The plane pilot was Kent Holland. . . . .Phyllis Davis, the airline hostess took us to our seats. The first building we saw was the Athletes' Apartment where only the "best" reside, the landlady is Doris Decker. Her noisiest tennants are George Jenkins and the former Peggy Lee and their growing basket "bawl" team. My what's that noise? Oh, it's just Connie Fulton trying a new hold on her fiance. She's been a professional wrestler for two years. Janice Moore, the world's most enthusiastic swimmer stays here and pays extra to flood the basement to practice. We were told that Guy Tabacchi left on his rocket to the moon and Kay Rider Fleageane invited us to the party, she and her husband are having on his return, Ronnie Smith is writing the daily Love Lorn Column in the local paper. Bob Smith is giving lessons--females only--on how to have that natural wavy hair. Right next door is the library, where Joyce Swann works many hours as librarian--who's that sitting at the back table? Well, if it isn't Bill Brownfield, who is still determined to be an educated bum.

Bill Thompson is president of Pop's Cider Bottlers, Inc., and Bill Brown is production manager. They continually brag about their efficient secretaries and stenographers, no wonder . . ,they are Linda Cunningham, Barbara Bumgardner, Eleanor Scypta, Judy Trushel, and Sandra Haught. My! What a beautiful building this next one is. It's the club house for Healthy Hearted Bachelors. For some reason they have very few members, but the few are faithful. Three old members, Bill Lewis, Tom Malicki, and John Cope have just initiated Woody Tramel, who very unwillingly applied for membership. It seems that Woody tried too hard to be a "lady killer". There seems to be some commotion down at the hospital! Oh, nothing too serious . . .the surgeon is performing a delicate operation and his wife, former Sandra Maxwell, insists on seeing him. The nurses in charge are Cindy Pettay, Jo Anne Slevin, Brenda Brooks, and Viola Davis. Believe me, they never have a dull moment with Gary Cunningham and Bill Steer as orderlies.

A new organization called "The Happy Housewives" has some of our friends as members. They are: Helen Dickerson, Linda Parrish, Ann Holmes, Judy Crawford, and Judy Anderson. Beverly Norris will probably be joining soon . . .when she gets settled in her new home--The parsonage. Bill Abel has just received a patent on his "Automatic Fox Hole Digger", and has just begun carving a handle for his newest invention, the "Automatic Jelly Grinder".

While resting in the hotel lobby, a special announcement interrupted Chuck Leeser's Dance Band program; the announcement was "Loren 'Flash' Johnson" just ran the five-mile dash in six minutes flat . . What a record! Chuck had a special entertainer, it's our own Kenny Welsh who has taken over for Elvis Presley because he just couldn't stand still. The "Three B's, "Bob M., Bob, and Ronnie Blake, had the commercial every hour on the hour advertising Carter's Little Lover Pills. Chuck Ledger's pull with the cows finally paid off; he owns the largest dairy in the country, and his cows give pure cream. Nancy Bovenizer and Barbara Becker have found their men at last and have healthy growing families. Bob Cumler has his own movie theater and runs 1937 films backwards for laughs . . . besides, it is cheaper. Butch Rothermund is now a lumberjack and his by-word is "timber." Patty Mackall is a model for the late Christian Dior. We were very glad when we heard on the television news that Diane O'Bradovich has been named "Grandmother of the year" and will star on the "Wisdom of the Ages" program, but sorry to hear of the arrest of Ronnie Selway, alias "Sticky Fingers" who was caught taking candy from his youngest daughter. Our friend, Charmaine Bland gave up cooking. . .her husband hired a cook. He said he didn't mind the expense, as he saves enough on doctor bills to pay the cook. Wilson McMannis, one of the best dentists, was seen entering the office of Dr. William Rogers--it seems he got his hands too close to a patient's mouth.

Jim Dowdle and Jack Edwards are mattress testers for the Bounce-A-Baby Mattress Company. Benny Schas owns a mortuary. His specialty for the week is 35% off if you walk in by yourself. On a billboard, we saw that Linda Sedgmer owns an antique shoppe and sells rings she has collected everywhere. Jon Mazeroski, Larry Newcomer, Junior Benyuska, Ronnie Barnhart, and Bruce Keesey, are mechanics and they are the ones who keep Fred Bryan, the grease monkey, on the run. Bonnie Wolfe has been very successful. She went to college and studied campusology (the art of courting on the campus) and received her MRS degree. Ed Mazeroski just graduated from OVGH Nursing School with a bachelor's degree. Richard Roach, John Stevenson, and Kenny Sharp are looking for an exercise to reduce income taxes.

Now we have finished our long tour of the "grads of 1958" and are ready to return to the present. We hope that you will have all the opportunities you may wish for.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was founded about 1920 for the purpose of recognizing outstanding ability and leadership in the secondary schools of this country and foreign countries.

Membership is the society is based upon four principals that are recognized as fundamental in all educational practices: Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. The colors of the society are blue and gold. Blue is the symbol of truth and gold is the light by which truth is radiated throughout the world.

The annual induction ceremony was held on October 3, 1957. There were five new members from the Junior Class taken into the society this year. They were as follows: Nancy Rogers, Lu Ann Dodd, Carol Selway, Deanna Hawk, and Bruce Torok.

The society's annual trip was taken on January 4, 1958, to see "AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS."

LATIN

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Latin Club held its formal initiation in October. Thirty-seven new members were sworn in by the President. . . . .One of the most outstanding meetings of the year was in November, when we had an exchange student from Thailand speak to us about her native country . . . .In December we enjoyed our annual Christmas party. We put on a play written by two of our members . . . . In March Mt. Pleasant chapter of the Junior Classical League paid us a visit, and after we enjoyed their program, went to the cafeteria and they enjoyed our food . . . .On April 11 we all boarded a bus, bright and early, sleepy-eyed but excited, and headed for Columbus for the state convention of the Junior Classical League. We met many new friends and had a very enjoyable time. . . . .In May the Freshmen said good-by to the Sophomores with a farewell banquet . . . .We the members of the 1957-1958 Junior Classical League Chapter of Cadiz High School, wish to give many thanks to Miss Sheriff for all the wonderful help she has given us throughout this year.

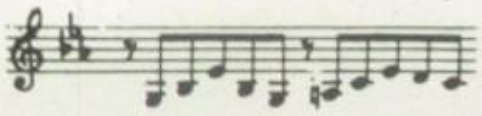
CHORUS



The High School chorus consists of students from the four high school grades. These students meet during the 5th and 7th class periods, five days a week.

The choral group has participated in many school and outside activities during the 1957-58 school year. Some of its many functions were the Honor Society assembly, the Prince of Peace contest, the Thanksgiving services at the First Christian Church, the Christmas Choir Festival and the Spring Concert.

Mrs. McKillop, due to a transfer to the art department, relinquished her duties as choral director to Mrs. Bell in November, 1957.

Chorus students have formed trios and quartets, which under the direction of Mrs. Bell have performed at many school functions and also many out-of-school events.

PRINCE OF PEACE

Winners - Kay Rider, Carol Selway

We had many participants in the Prince of Peace contests this year which were held in the Methodist Church on Nov. 10 and Nov. 17. In the first contest, Kay Rider was declared the winner. The other contestants were Anne Swingle, Linda Sedgmer, Kelley Snodgrass and Linda Parrish.

The winner of the Nov. 17 contest was Carol Selway. The other contestants were Kenny Welsh, Gretchen Corban, Lila Dewalt, Kathie Long, and Bonnie Wolfe.

Carol and Kay went on to county competition. That contest was held in the Christian Church on Dec. 15. Carol Selway was chosen second place winner of Harrison County.

The contests are sponsored by the Ohio Council of Churches. Awards for local winners are bronze metals. County winners and district winners receive silver and gold metals, respectively. Scholarships are offered to state winners. Contestants may choose a prepared speech or write an original one for the contest. Mr. Boyce, English and Speech teacher, is the advisor for these contests.

"Y" TEENS

The Cadiz T-Teen Club is a branch of the Ohio Y.W.C.A. The members of the club are Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, and were taken into the club in a formal initiation. The initiation was in the form of Christmas assembly presented by the Y-Teens and the High School Chorus.

The Club under the direction of Mrs. Stauffer has held many dances and assemblies. Among the dances were the Home Coming and Valentine dances. There were also many sock hops after football and basketball games.

Four girls were sent to New York from the Cadiz Club as delegates to the United Nations. This trip proved to be time well spent as the girls said they gained a great deal from the trip.

The officers for the 1957-58 school year were installed April 28, 1957. Elected president was Cindy Pettay, Vice Pres. Peggy Lee, Sec. Diane Henwood, Treas. Judy Trushel, Sgt. at Arms Bonnie Wolfe.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Rest Assured"

Mr. Morlock (K.Welsh), a grouchy old gent who doesn't like anything but money, won't let daughter Mary (K.Rider), become engaged to Joe Lanconi (R.Selway), for Joe's papa (G. Jenkins) is poor. The two old boys start a furious feud. Luigi's always had a bad heart and he just konks out. Luigi gets permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock until he gives permission for the wedding. Luigi starts haunting in a big way; kicks Mr. Morlock in the seat of his nightshirt, flirts with his secretary (C.Pettay) and cavorts around in a fashion that would put most ghosts to shame. In his despair, Morlock takes too many sleeping pills and kicks the bucket. Right here, Lucifier (J.Dowdle), and souls (J.Swann and B. Wolfe), from "down-below," drop in to take Mr. Morlock to the lower rigions. Mary prepares for her wedding; Jessica (J.Moore), prepares to start her wrestling career and Mrs. Morlock (L. Parrish) is actually smiling again as Doctor Brown (B.Rogers) holds her hand and hints at matrimony. Friends send them regrets (C.Lesser, G. Tabacci, N. Bovenizer, J. Edwards). Mr. Morlock now realizes what a heel he's been. If he only had another chance; but Mildred (J.Crawford) the maid awakens him. He had spent the night on the sofa. It's all been a bad dream. He didn't die and neither did Luigi. Needless to say, Mr. Morlock reformed, made vast premises, okayed the wedding and peace finally reigned at the Morlock's.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Automatic Butler"

Mr. and Mrs. Preston kept boarders to help out. Their daughter invited mother's onetime sweetheart for a visit. Mrs. Preston was horrified! She must have a butler and a maid! It was so simple. You see, she just . . . . .It didn't work out so good. The new butler was a robot. The fun was fast and furious. Every part was a distinct characterization - - the dictatorial mother (Judy Crawford), the hen-pecked father (Bill Rogers), the robot (Ken Welsh), the family pest (Nancy Bovenizer), the dumb cop (Ron Selway), the crook (Chuck Leeser), the maid (Peg Lee), the inventor (Bill Steer), the cook (Cindy Pettay), the daughter (Linda Parrish), Mama's beau (George Jenkins), and his daughter (Kay Rider). All in all it was the best play treat of the season, as Mrs. Preston found that the aquisition of a Butler and Maid did not as expected, contribute to an enjoyable visit by her old beau. The automatic Butler proved to be her disliked boarder, and the maid was an accomplice of the slickest jewel thief in the country. This proved to be Mrs. Preston's downfall as the robbery took place in her husbands shop. The fun began when Mrs. Preston's Beau and his daughter were arrested as the thief and his accomplice. All in all, it proved an enjoyable evening for the audience of 400 delighted viewers. The play was held in the Cadiz High School Auditorum, on Friday Evening, December 13, 1958.

ATHLETICS

The 1957 Cadiz Cardinals completed a successful football season by compiling a very impressive record of 7 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Under the capable direction of Coach Haines and Coach Thomas, the Cardinals exhibited a tremendous spirit of sportsmanship and a strong determination to present our school with a football team of which Cadiz students and alumni may be duly proud.

Following the capable leadership of Co-Captains George Jenkins and Jack Edwards, the Cardinals finished the 1957 season with a surge of power which found them defeating Adena, Mt.

Pleasant, and St. Clairsville, all in a period of seven days.

Cadiz, 1957, may well be proud of the team which has presented Cadiz High School with the EOAL Football Championship and was runnerup in the AA race for the OVAC Championship.

Cadiz may also be proud of the fact that the following 1957 Cardinals were placed on the 1957-58 EOAL All-Star Team: G. Jenkins, J. Edwards, J. Dowdle, J. Wallace, W. McMannis, and W. Brownfield.

Congratulations team and coaches for a job well done!

The 1958 Basketball team under the excellent coaching of Ed Sterling and Dale King gave Cadiz High School an exceptional season on the hardwood floor. Following the superior leadership of co-captains George Jenkins and Jim Dowdle, the 1958 Cardinals presented us with a fine record of 19 wins and only 3 losses. The strong Cadiz team stormed through its regular season with the strength and determination of a "winner".

Only tasting defeat twice during regular season play, the Cardinals pushed on to sweep the Sectional Tournament at Dennison, finally defeating favored New Philadelphia with considerable ease. At the Martins Ferry District Tournament, Cadiz fell to defeat at the hands of a strong Warren Consolidated team which closed the door on one of Cadiz's more successful seasons.
